FEAT OF A MACGREGOR.

Wonderful Physical Strength That Was Used to Good Purpose.

Sir William MacGregor was the hero of such an adventure as one expects ordinarily to read about only in fiction of a certain hue.

The steamship Syria, with a lot of Indian coolies on board, struck on a rock about twelve hours from Suva, the capital of Fiji.

Dr. MacGregor, then acting colonial secretary, organized a relief expedition, clambered over a broken mast that was the only path to the emigrants and again and again returned with a man or woman on his back and sometimes a child, held by its clothes between his teeth.

A man of vast physical strength, MacGregor wanted it all for his final feat. Down below on the reef was a woman who had fallen overboard, had got at the spirits and was mad with drink. The captain of the ship and a police officer who had gone after her were being swept out to sea. MacGregor slid down a rope, caught the knot of the woman's hair in his teeth and with his hands seized the two men and dragged them both into safety. He went back to Suva in a borrowed suit of pajamas, having left all his clothes and a good deal of his skin on the coral reef.

Modest, like many heroes, MacGregor left himself out of his own report, and it was from the governor that the queen first heard the whole story.

To Revive Withered Flowers. Plunge the stalks into boiling water and allow them to remain until the water is cold. By that time the flowers will have revived. Cut off the ends of the stalks and arrange the flowers in cold water, and they will keep fresh for several days.

HERE AT HOME.

Barre Citizens Gladly Testify. It is testimony like the following that has placed "The old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. "Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by E. A. Brown's drug store, did me more good than all the other remedies for the kidneys I ever used. For the results I obtained I most emphatically endorse the preparation. At different times for three or four years I suffered from acute backache and when that was not present there was a dull aching through my loins and kidneys, sometimes changing to sharp twinges, positively proving that in some way the action of these organs was disturbed. When in the acute stage twinges were sure to catch me if I stooped, and if I attempted to lift anything even light I was always rewarded with extra aggravated aches. In the morning I have often been so lame and sore across the small of my back that I could hardly get out of bed, and although I tried remedy after remedy advertised I received little if any benefit. A friend was so emphatic about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills that I took his advice and commenced the treatment. They helped me after a dose or two and when I completed the treatment of two boxes, the backache ceased, my kidneys were thoroughly cleansed and I was in better health than I had been for many a long day. For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
